Ellie Tsuchiya

GOLDEN GIRL

Pine View senior Ellie Tsuchiya received the Girl Scout Gold Award from the Girl Scouts of Gulfcoast Florida Inc. Tsuchiya earned the honor for her project, "Dance, Dance Round the World," for the Dance — The Next Generation students with the Sarasota Ballet. Tsuchiya's project addresses cultural apathy specifically for young girls involved in DNG, which is a free program offered through the Sarasota Ballet for students at Title 1 schools. Tsuchiya will be recognized for her achievement in May, at the Girl Scouts Young Women of Distinction ceremony.

ST. MARTHA STUDENT

A group of seventh-grade students from St. Martha's School in the U.S. are traveling to Europe this month to participate in a study and service trip. The students are accompanied by their teachers and chaperones to take in the sights and learn about European culture.

AN HONOR TO BE NOMINATED

A sophomore at Pine View, Joshua Wolff, was nominated to attend the Congress of Future Medical Leaders later this month in Washington, D.C. The Congress of Future Medical Leaders honors program is designed to motivate and inspire high school students with dreams of studying in the medical field. Dr. Connie Mariano, the medical director of the National Academy of Future Physicians and Medical Scientists, nominated Wolff to represent Florida based on his academic achievement, leadership potential and determination to pursue a career in the field of medicine.
